

Temporary Support Effort Personnel (TSEP)

Mai Barker

Subcontracts Manager

Acquisition Description

(Current Subcontract)

- “Temporary Support Effort Personnel (TSEP) Subcontract will provide support effort personnel to the extent requested by JPL to work under JPL direction on specific temporary work assignments at JPL-controlled facilities or other locations designated by JPL. TSEP personnel shall be bona fide employees of their company, including but not limited to, the following labor categories”:
 - Various types of scientists
 - Hardware, software and systems engineers
 - Designers, drafters, and illustrators
 - Mathematicians, Computer programmers
 - Various types of analysts (including software and computer analysts), specialists, assistants and technicians
 - Computer, graphics, and audio-visual operators
 - Off-site maintenance personnel
 - Clean-room support personnel
 - Quality assurance inspectors
 - Secretaries and clerks
 - Technical writers

Additional Information

- Best Value Source Selection
 - Technical/Management Evaluation
 - Cost
 - Past Performance
- Most likely Labor-Hour type Subcontract
- Potential 10-year term (similar to current subcontracts)
- Will be posted on JPL external website (not FedBizOpps)
 - <http://acquisition.jpl.nasa.gov/rfp/>
- Goal is to make this a Small Business Set-Aside

Proposed Procurement Schedule

- January 2013 - Request for Proposal (RFP) Released
- January 2013 – Bidders Conference
- February 2013 – Proposals Due
- June 2013 – Source Selection
- July 2013 – Subcontract Execution – Transition Period

